

STATE FAIR TO STAGE A. A. TRI-STATE MOTOR CHAMPIONSHIP NOVEMBER 18

STRONG TENDENCY TO GO OUTLAW CURBED; DOUGLAS PHOENIX RACE IS ASSURED

FACTS ABOUT AUTOMOBILE RACING FOR STATE FAIR

The racing will be under Three-A sanction. Prizes for the 100-mile race will aggregate about $2,500. Purses for the Douglas-Phoenix race will total $1,250. Special prizes of cup and cash for city entries in track races. Arizona State Fair Association is promoter; Warren H. McArthur superintendent of speed; George P. Holland, representative of the contest board of the A. A. A. Dick Hollingsworth, starter. Charles H. McArthur has been recommended to the contest board as chief timer for both the track program and the Douglas-Phoenix race.

The Arizona State Fair will remain a licensed association for the promotion of automobile races.

After one of the sharpest little contests ever staged between rival associations, the control of the little mile track remained in the hands of the American Automobile association, and the races of November 18 next will be run under A. A. A. sanction.

This was decided yesterday, when Secretary Tom Shaughnessy accepted the proposition of Dick Hollingsworth, prepared the applications for sanction and sent them on to Chairman Kennard of the competition committee.

Two races will be staged in the mile enclosure on Saturday of fair week. The first will be the novelty race for stripped Ford's. There will be several heats to this race, with josh stunts at the end of each mile in each four mile race. The final heat of four miles will be for blood, and will be between the winners of the elimination trials.

The second race, and the big one, is to be a 100-mile tri-state championship. Cars and drivers that belong to Arizona, New Mexico or Texas only, and in a strictly home rule manner will be permitted to contest.

That there will be over twenty-five entries is the opinion of Secretary Tom Shaughnessy. As the rules allow but thirteen cars of a mile track, there will necessarily be some elimination trials just prior to the big outburst of speed.

Along with his announcement of the state fair's plans for automobile track racing, Shaughnessy gave out the interesting fact that sanction has been applied for to the A. A. A. for the Douglas-Phoenix race. This contest will be run in one day, probably November 12, the opening day of the state fair. Drivers in the road race will probably be the nucleus of the entries for the track races on November 18. Local drivers will be interested in these plans, and will probably contribute at least five cars to each race.

The How of It. Originally, the local association had no quarrel with the A. A. A., and even after its application for sanction for a long, speedway race for drivers of national fame, had been overlooked by that organization, it bore no resentment. The A. A. A. granted the sanction for the Vanderbilt and Grand Prix races to Santa Monica for dates that put the possibility of having any of the big drivers here absolutely out of the question.

At first, the fair commission thought to put on a race for Arizona drivers alone—as that sort of an event has been urged by the local boys, who have grown sick of competing vainly against R. Oldfield and E. Cooper in the state fair events. About that time, proposals were made to hold a meet under the sanction of the International Motor Contests association, an organization which is controlling most of the mile track and state fair racing in the United States today. This association has registered and licensed many drivers on whom the A. A. A. frowns, and is looked upon as an outlaw organization. Still, it numbers among its drivers some who are just as famous as the majority of the A. A. A. men.

The bare possibility of the commission's closing with the L. M. C. A. brought a wild howl from friends and representatives of the A. A. A. and Hollingsworth, who acted as starter last year and who is one of the better known A. A. A. officials of Southern California.

California, made it a point to see Shaughnessy with a lot of healthy arguments. They moved full, healthy enough, for with the promise of wide cooperation in securing entries on the part of Hollingsworth, Shaughnessy agreed in behalf of the fair commission to put on a licensed race for the fair.

The news will put a lot of semi-professional and amateur drivers of A. A. A. persuasion in Arizona, in a fine, mellow mood, for they will see themselves charging around the mile oval with no chance of some big, well-known gink like Oldfield or Cooper sailing by in a 10,000 back creation and amping the dough. And Oh! Yes! Another thing.

The Intercity Clash. The cities and towns of Arizona will be much interested in the automobile racing at the coming fair for there will be a contest for cars entered and named for entry by municipalities.

For this clash, which will be run during the five-mile elimination heats, a $100 silver loving cup will be donated by the fair commission. The cup goes to the burg or village that helps put in the car, and there will be a special cash prize of $150 to reward the driver, who, therefore, named by any city or town in Arizona, as its entry that makes the fastest time in the elimination trials, will bring lasting glory and honor to the community, as well as do re-mit to its pilot.

OPEN SEASONS FOR ARIZONA BIRDS IN FEDERAL CONTROL

The new regulations for the enforcement of the migratory-bird law were approved by the president August 21, 1916, and became effective on and after that date. The schedule printed below shows the open seasons when hunting the birds named is permitted in Arizona under these regulations. Hunting at other seasons is prohibited. Hunters however should consult the state laws, as the federal regulations will not be construed to authorize hunting within a closed period prescribed by the state occurring within the open season under the federal regulations.

Shooting is prohibited between sunrise and sunset in both zones. Insectivorous birds are protected indefinitely in both zones and no open season is allowed. Band-tailed pigeons, cranes, wood ducks, swans, willet, upland plover, and smaller shore-birds are protected everywhere until September 1, 1918.

Open Seasons for Migratory Birds

(Dates are inclusive)—Zone 2. Waterfowl (except swans and wood ducks), Coots, Gallinules and Jacksnipe, Oct. 16-Jan. 31. Birds (except coots and gallinules), Sept. 1-Nov. 30.

Black-breasted and Golden Plover and Greater and Lesser Yellowlegs: Sept. 1-Dec. 15. Jacksnipe (same as waterfowl), Nov. 1-Dec. 15.

Black-birds, wrens, curlews, willets, upland plover, and smaller shore-birds are protected everywhere until September 1, 1918.

GIANTS WIN NINTH STRAIGHT VICTORY
BESCHER'S HOMERUN WITH BASES LOADED

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—New York won another game here today, defeating Cincinnati for its ninth straight victory. Tereau held the visitors to seven hits, while the fast base running of the Giants enabled them to score on Moseley. All of New York's runs were scored with two out and came after steals of second. The Giants stole seven bases. Score: Cincinnati 0, New York 5.
